@Stealth Medical @Ryan Mauro Mauro caught something interesting a few days back that is worth mentioning, because it could be a window into part of what might be happening with Tucker.

➡ Tucker's brother Buckley mentioned to Tucker that one of the three places he gets his information from is the Unz Review.

➡ Unz Review is run by Ron Unz. @Tim Starr will say the first thing worth mentioning about Unz is that he is a Holocaust denier.

➡ When I was researching Fuentes, I also found a video where he had favorable words for Unz
2/18

➡ Unz, through his foundation, has funded communist Norman Finkelstein.

➡ Unz also gave money to Counterpunch (formerly edited by Marxist Alexander Cockburn-his father was alleged leader of W. Europe Comintern)

➡ Paul Craig Roberts also received money from Unz.
3/18

➡ Roberts was featured on the Russian Foreign Intelligence controlled Strategic Culture Foundation and on Aleksandr Dugin's Geopolitika ru.

➡ Unz Review republishes 🇷🇺 Strategic Culture Foundation (see my pinned post on profile)
4/18

➡ Another recipient of Unz money was his national security editor Phillip Giraldi (part of pro-Russian Veteran Intelligence Professionals for Sanity).

➡ Multiple people in this ecosystem: Dugin, Giraldi, Finkelstein have been invited to the Iranian
5/18

New Horizon Conference which was sanctioned by the U.S. government, and it was used as a recruiting ground for Iranian intelligence.

➡ It is also worth mentioning the Unz Review promotes the Institute for Historical Review (IHR republishes Ron Paul).

Making Imperialism Great Again?

Ron Paul

It did not take long for President Trump to change the reason for sending the US military to “arrest” Venezuela President Nicolás Maduro and his wife. The allegation that President Maduro ran a drug cartel was front and center in the months leading up to President Maduro’s “arrest.” Afterwards, President Trump said the invasion was about Venezuela’s oil, and announced plans for the US government to send American oil companies into Venezuela ... President Trump’s newfound love of regime change wars may be one reason why he is seeking to increase the military budget to 1.5 trillion dollars. President Trump claims that tariff revenue can fund the increase, but that is simply not possible.

Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion

Since it was first published more than a century ago, The Protocols has shocked and fascinated the world. It has appeared in countless editions in every major language, flourishing in spite of ceaseless efforts to dismiss, ridicule and suppress it. This secret guide seems to explain how a small group of initiated Jews, the “Elders,” can gain power over the world’s non-Jewish peoples, the “goyim.”

This attractive, completely reset new edition includes photographs and a valuable introduction that explains the origins, background and enduring impact of this extraordinary work.

Much of the reason for the work’s enduring popularity and impact is that the conspiracy it outlines seems to be more dangerous than ever. Even many who might not accept The Protocols as an authentic document nonetheless regard it as a sobering validation of Jewish methods and goals.

Is this really the secret outline of a diabolical Jewish plot to control the world? Or is this infamous best-seller a fraud, as its detractors insist? It is offered here caveat lector. Decide for yourself.

➡ IHR was founded and run for a time by Willis Carto. Carto helped arrange the publication of the first American edition of Francis Parker Yockey's Imperium.

➡ Yockey was an American Nazi who witnessed Stalin's "infamous anti-Semitic show trials that were staged in late 1951"

IMPERIUM

➡ Yockey wrote an essay about what he saw and said that it would be tactically advantageous to ally with the Soviets.

➡ Neo Nazi James Madole of the NRP (Iraqis were interested in NRP and asked LaRouche to investigate for pro  ops) published Yockey's essay and this began 8/18 a new chapter in the Red-Brown alliance.

➡ Quick asides, 1. Timothy McVeigh was probably a reader of Carto's spotlight publication because he took an ad out in it.

➡ 2. Lyndon LaRouche formed a temporary alliance with Carto's Liberty Lobby (he planned to destroy them later). 9/18

➡ Returning to IHR which Unz promotes, their publishing arm has been Noontide Press. What books do we find at Noontide?

➡ The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion. A book N. Cohn suggested was probably one of the most significant on world history in the 20th century.

➡ The key members in the Nazi party used the Protocols as a warrant for genocide.

➡ The Soviets later spread it to the Arab world (while Nazis like Leers found himself in Egypt after WW2 as a propaganda officer).

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF JERUSALEM

Criminal Case No. 40/61

Before His Honour JUDGE MOSHE LANDAU (Presiding)
His Honour JUDGE BENJAMIN HALEVI
His Honour JUDGE YITZCHAK RAVEH

For the Prosecution: THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

The Accused: ADOLF, son of Karl Adolf, EICHMANN

J U D G M E N T

The references in the Judgment are to the official record in Hebrew.

Adolf Eichmann has been brought to trial in this Court on charges of unsurpassed gravity - charges of crimes against the Jewish People, crimes against humanity, and war crimes. The period of the crimes ascribed to him, and their historical background, is that of the Hitler regime in Germany and in Europe, and the counts of the indictment encompass the catastrophe which befell the Jewish People during that period - a story of bloodshed and suffering which will be remembered to the end of time.

Office for Reich Security - he, of all people - was that "white raven," the National Socialist who did not hate Jews, is unbelievable.

Had a man of his kind, a man who stood in the thick of the fight against the Jews - first in the field of ideology and afterwards in the actual fight - shown the slightest deviation from the anti-Semitic orthodoxy which was demanded from every member of the Party, however lowly, he could not have remained there for even one day. The heads of the SD and the Gestapo with whom he worked would certainly soon have detected any such deviation. But let us quote the words of the Defence witness Six, who knew the Accused closely from the time of his work in the SD Head Office, when Six was head of the branch in which the Accused worked. In his evidence taken in Germany, he says (p. 6):

"Eichmann believed wholeheartedly in National Socialism ...I believe that, when in doubt, Eichmann invariably acted according to the doctrine of the Party in its most extreme interpretation."

230. The evidence before us fully confirms these words. Even today, when he makes his remarks on the article in Life, the Accused explains to Sassen, why Hitler disappointed him (T/48, p. 8):

"I said that the real agitators for war were the infernal high finance (die infernalische Hochfinanz) circles of the Western hemisphere, whose servants are Churchill and Roosevelt, and the puppets, the pawns in this game of theirs, are Hitler, Mussolini, Daladier, Chamberlain."

The "infernal finance circles" are, of course, the Jews according to the concepts of the "Protocols of the Elders of Zion," that "International Finance Jewry" about whom Hitler spoke in his speech in January 1939 and whom he threatened to exterminate. This is the style used by the Accused even in 1957, so deep was his conviction from the past that the Jews are the enemies of mankind, and he reaches a new peak in the development of the Nazi mythology: Hitler himself was a plaything into the hands of the Jews.

➡ This is just the tip of the iceberg and for brevity, I must move to Fuentes. Fuentes is on video saying he followed the libertarians (Austrian School) and listened to three hours of Alex Jones per day.

➡ Being in either one of these thought circles there is a high percentage chance you will be hit with Russian active measures and led into antisemitism.

➡ In a phone interview with someone that attended school with Alex Jones, that person said Jones followed lizard conspiracy man David Icke. Icke has been criticized for replacing Jews

The Robots' Rebellion

Icke's The Robots' Rebellion (1994), a book published by Gateway, attracted allegations that his work was antisemitic. According to historian Nicholas Goodrick-Clarke, the book contains "all the familiar beliefs and paranoid clichés" of the US conspiracists and militia.^[97] It claims that a plan for world domination by a shadowy cabal, perhaps extraterrestrial, was laid out in The Protocols of the Elders of Zion (c. 1897).

The Protocols of the Elders of Zion is an anti-Semitic literary forgery,^[98] probably written under the direction of the Russian secret police in Paris, purporting to reveal a conspiracy by the Jewish people to achieve global domination. It was exposed as a forgery in 1920 by Lucien Wolf and the following year by Philip Graves in The Times. Once exposed, it disappeared from mainstream discourse until interest in it was renewed by the American far right in the 1950s.^[99] Interest in it was further spread by conspiracy groups on the Internet.^[100] According to Michael Barkun, Icke's reliance on the Protocols in The Robots' Rebellion is "the first of a number of instances in which Icke moves into the dangerous terrain of antisemitism".^{[101][102]}

Icke took both the extraterrestrial angle and the focus on the Protocols from Behold a Pale Horse (1991) by Milton William Cooper, who was associated with the American militia movement; chapter 15 of Cooper's book reproduces the Protocols in full.^{[103][104][105]} The Robots' Rebellion refers repeatedly to the Protocols, calling them the Illuminati protocols, and defining Illuminati as the "Brotherhood elite at the top of the pyramid of secret societies world-wide". Icke adds that the Protocols were not the work of the Jewish people, but of Zionists.^{[106][107]}

In his 2001 documentary about Icke,^[6] Jon Ronson cited this cartoon, "Rothschild" (1898), by Charles Léandre, arguing that Jews have long been depicted as lizard-like creatures who are out to control the world.^[96] with shapeshifting reptilians. Jones also read John Birch material which was an organization that harbored at least 1 high level antisemite such as their President who believed in the Protocols of the Elders of Zion. Jones might not be antisemitic, but it is no secret for 14/18 anyone studying extremism or conspiracy circles that groups that aren't explicitly antisemitic, well, many have adopted elements of the Protocols but dropped the Jews out for marketability.

➡ Another route Fuentes could have ended up where he is now, is from the Austrian 15/18

/libertarian camp which has a high level of crossover into the InfoWars ecosystem. Both, as I have extensively documented, facilitate massive amounts of Russian active measures and propaganda against their readers.

➡ If Fuentes was following Ron Paul, he could have easily 16/18 ended up on Unz's website or IHR's and then another step to Noontide reading the Protocols. There are literally dozens of other 1,2,3 step clicks from the libertarian ecosystem to reading full blown Nazi propaganda.
